THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) to (c) The Risk Capital Foundation, sponsored by the Industrial Finance Corporation of India (IFCI) provides interest-free loans to entrepreneurs possessing technical or professional qualifications or having relevant experience in industry or business to enable them to meet a part of the promoters contribution. No interest is charged on these loans but a nominal service charge is levied. The RCF have stipulated various conditions for assistance which inter alia include that the cost of the project should ordinarily be between Rs. 2.00 crores and Rs. 15.00 crores and the project should be 'technically feasible, financially sound and economically viable. The assistance from the RCF is normally limited to 50% of the promoters contribution. The IFCI has reported that RCF has sanctioned a total assistance of Rs. 14.04 crores to 213 promoters for 127 projects upto 30th June, 1987. Out of these projects, in the opinion of IFCI 17 projects could be considered as those which involved manufacture of sophisticated products. The names of such entrepreneurs, amount sanctioned & the products
